

RADSCC and Interpretek are sponsoring a continuing education workshop. This workshop is offering 4.0 CEUs at the intermediate content knowledge level.

The Power of Visual Depiction Skills

A hands-on experiential workshop for the deaf community and interpreters. This workshop will develop more effective and engaging translations through story-telling with focus on advanced non-manual signs, depiction, terminology related to vocational, technical, and medical classifiers.

When: May 11-15, 2020 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Where: RIT Wallace Library RADSCC #1540

Registration Deadline: April 15, 2020 Non-refundable after May 1, 2020

Cost: Early bird before March 20 $395.00 After March 21 $425.00

Register: Click Here

Alisha Bronk MA., CDI is a certified freelance Deaf and International Interpreter, and is an instructor for the Department of ASL and Interpreting Education (ASLIE) at RIT/NTID. While getting her master's degree in TESOL: Applied Linguistics from Portland State University, she became involved in international education. Bronk conducts workshops and training seminars around the world. She was one of the core creators of ASL Tales, a book/DVD series designed and used in education for families and classrooms at all levels of ASL learning.