

Robert Galbraith is a Partner at Davidson Fink LLP. He has extensive experience counseling clients in commercial and residential real estate, development and finance, as well as default-related services. Mr. Galbraith's experience with commercial real estate and development throughout the Eastern United States has given him the knowledge to offer effective solutions to lenders and servicers, regional and national developers and investors.

Mr. Galbraith has lectured extensively on behalf of the New York and Monroe County Bar Associations as well as industry trade groups, including the Mortgage Bankers Association, the American Legal and Financial Network and Legal League 100.

“Solutions in today's world are not always linear, and require an attorney who knows the law and has the ability to analyze all aspects of a matter. My knowledge, skills and experience enable me to develop and implement effective solutions that meet my client's needs and protect their rights.”

Mr. Galbraith has also had recognitions with the following:
Best Lawyers in America, 2013-Present, Real Estate Law and Mortgage Banking Foreclosure Law, Best Lawyers is based on a peer review and nominations.
